

Katsura Tree

Cercidiphyllum japonicum

Zone: 5
Height: 40'
Spread: 40'
Shape: Upright and pyramidal when young, rounded with age
Foliage: Bluish-green
Fall Color: Yellow or apricot orange

A tree of variable form: Single stem trees are usually upright when young, while multi-stem plants are usually spreading. The beautiful heart shaped foliage and the delicate, fine texture make this tree an eye catcher in parks and gardens.
